

This twin-gable home has a small footprint without compromising on features. Inside the dining connects to its own outdoor space. The kitchen and living are both positioned in an open plan layout. The master has an extensive side-by-side wardrobe, and it's own ensuite. The laundry resides in the garage, and both bedrooms and the living room can easily access the bathroom. If you want a cost-effective three-bedroom home that doesn't look boring, this is it!
